

BETHANIAN 73

Bethanian '73

Myra C. Selsor

Editor

Just over the hillside or around the next bend is home.

It's been a place of growing up.

Growing in love.

Growing in friendship.

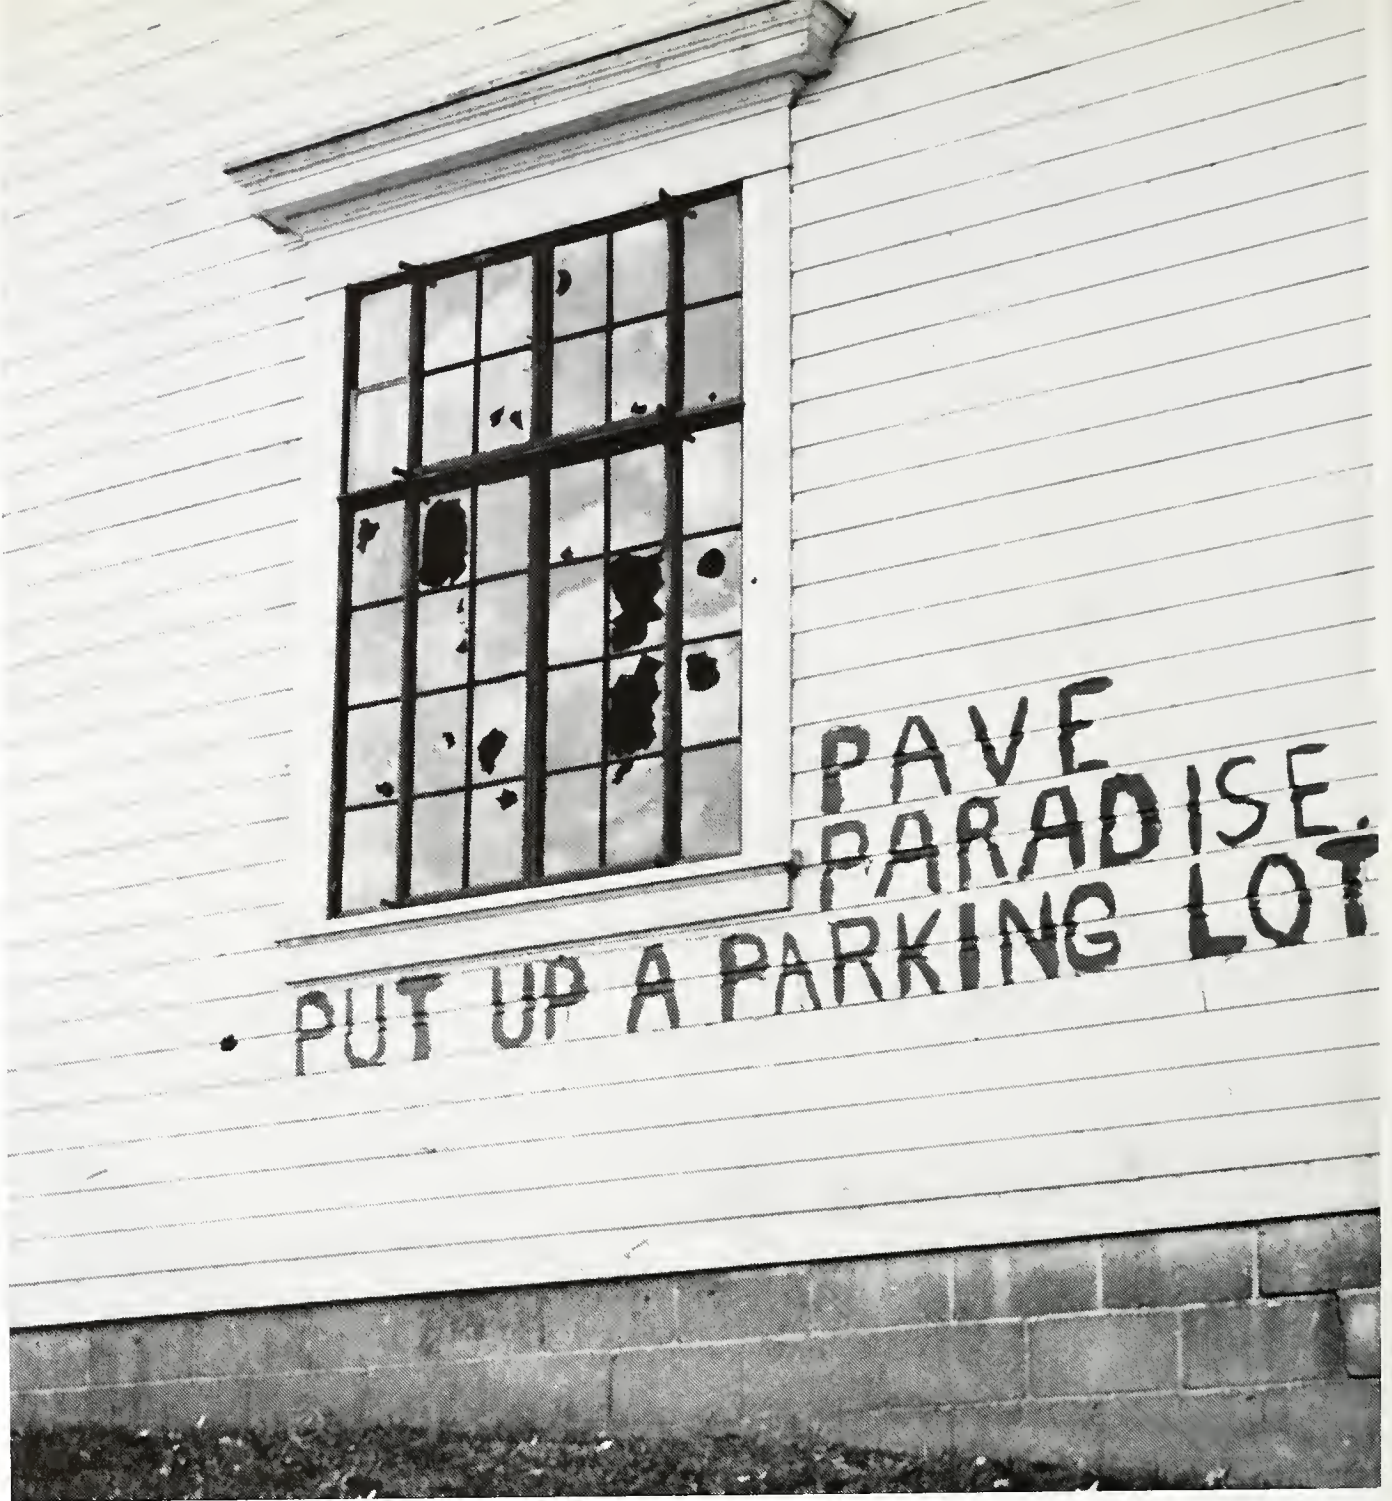

Growing as individuals.

Bethany has changed as we have grown . . .
destruction . . .

. . . construction, reconstruction,
and MUD.

But no matter how many physical changes we undergo, Bethany somehow remains the same

Classes and studying.
 They're such a big part of our lives
 Somehow we each find our own way to conquer it.

Bethany. Always different but some how always the same.

Editor's Note

Creating the Bethanian was the most difficult task I encountered in my college years. It was difficult because I lacked experience and because no one is interested in working on yearbooks anymore. The lack of interest could cause the end of a yearbook at Bethany. It is an historical journal that belongs to a college.

There are many people who helped put this book together and probably don't realize it. Miss Nicholson, who could always identify an unknown student in a group, was a great help. Thank you. I must also thank the KDs for living with me and my mess. I am grateful to my fiancée not letting me complain about all of the work. I would have quit months ago if it hadn't been for him. There are two more persons that I must thank who helped me from a distance of 350 miles. They are my parents. I am most grateful to them for encouraging me to take on the job and for offering me a college education.
